

RANGER WORKS

We are a uniquely skilled and experienced workforce of Aboriginal rangers undertaking fee-for-service contracts across remote Central Australia. We have the professional skills and expertise to deliver high-quality cultural and natural resource management projects.

WHY CHOOSE RANGER WORKS?

WE ARE THE CUSTODIANS OF OUR COUNTRY

We are traditional owners of the lands on which we work.

WE KNOW OUR COUNTRY AND ITS ECOLOGY INTIMATELY

We understand our native plants and animals, weather cycles and geographic features. Our environmental management practices are informed by a combination of traditional and Western scientific knowledge.

WE ARE QUALIFIED AND READY

We are trained to industry standards and hold white cards and heavy machinery licenses where applicable.

WE OPERATE ACROSS A HUGE AREA

We live and work across more than 468,000 square kilometres of remote Central Australia. The Central Land Council has demonstrated its capacity to safely support its staff in remote work areas.

WE CAN GROW A RANGER WORKFORCE QUICKLY

Our 12 ranger teams employ more than 100 people and can draw on additional casual workers.

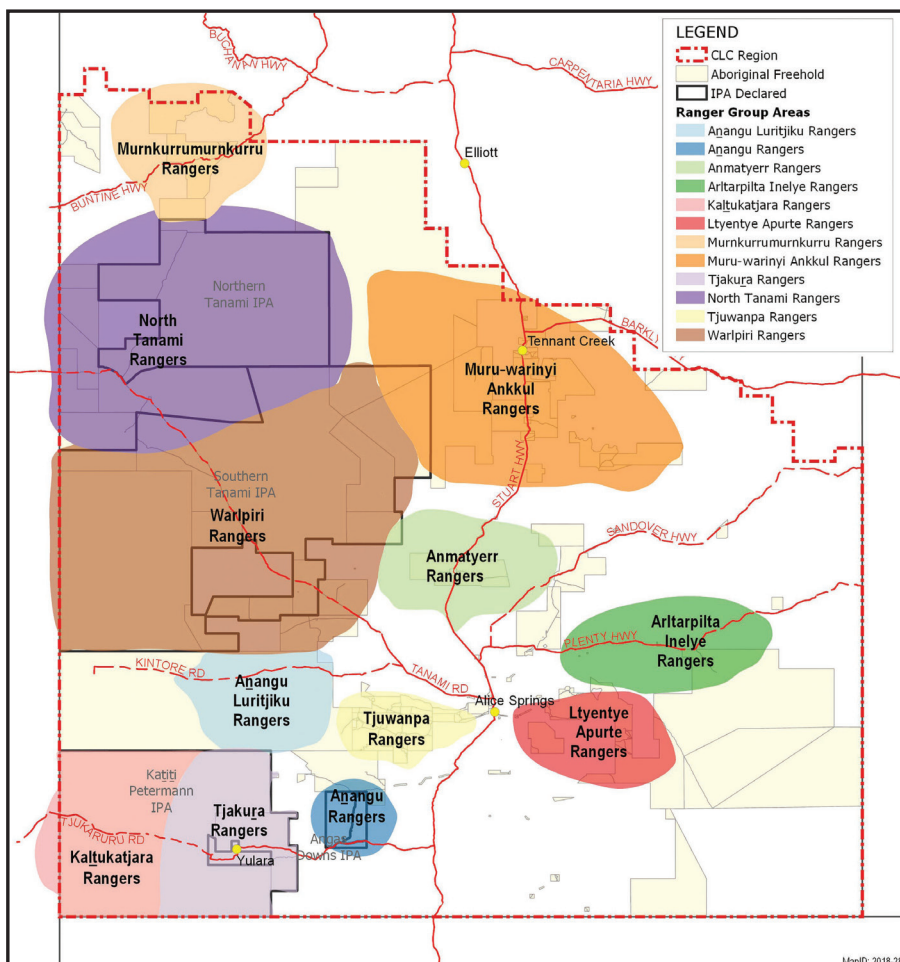

YOU CAN HELP US TO KEEP COUNTRY AND PEOPLE HEALTHY

We have a track record of significant positive social, cultural, environmental and economic outcomes. By working with us you contribute to these outcomes and support healthy country and healthy people.
